From M4 / Bath

Leave M4 junction 18 on the A46. Drive down the Avon valley and with Solsbury Hill on your left, follow signs to the A4 heading towards Bath City Centre. From the A4, drive into Bath City Centre following the signs to Warminster and the A36 where you'll drive over the river and past the fire station on your left.

Take the A36 out of Bath towards Warminster. Continue for about 6 miles along the Avon Valley, past the Green Fuel Company, over the viaduct, up and down a couple of small hills and after the petrol station on your left the road widens, filter into this, first right signed Norton St Philip onto the A366. At the main crossroads in Norton St Philip (with The Fleur de Lys pub on your left and opposite The George) continue straight over down a steep hill, keeping The George on your left.

Continue past the garage on your right and drive out of Norton St Philip, past Tuckers Grave, through Faulkland, over the crossroads with the A362 and on to the B3139 towards Kilmersdon. After the sharp left hand bend take the next left, sign posted towards Vobster Quay Diving Centre. Continue for just over a mile, past Babington House on your right and take the next right, signposted to Newbury and opposite the big yellow sign "Mells Pit Works". Then take the first left, signposted to Newbury and continue to the end of the road, as you round the last corner, Page Barn is on your right with the entrance and car park behind.

From Bristol

Take the A37 south out of Bristol for about 12 miles, through Pensford, Clutton Temple Cloud and Farrington Gurney. Stay on the A37 until the left hand turn on to the B3139 to Chilcompton. Drive through Chilcompton, go straight across the roundabout with the A367 signposted towards Kilmersdon. Continue through Charlton and when you get to Kilmersdon, drive down the steep hill that Jack and Jill fell down, through the village, past The Joliffe pub on the left. Follow the road round to the left, drive under the bridge and take the next right at the grassy triangle.

Continue for just over a mile, past Babington House on your right and take the next right, signposted to Newbury and opposite the big yellow sign "Mells Pit Works". Then take the first left, signposted to Newbury and continue to the end of the road, as you round the last corner, Page Barn is on your right with the entrance and car park behind.
